SINGAPORE – CITY OF LIONS

Your journey begins with a two-night hotel stay in Singapore, one of the great cities of Asia. A fascinating tour here will explore its modern and ancient history, giving you an insight into the energy and dynamism of the people and how this island-state has transformed itself since post-war independence.

EXOTIC MALAYSIA AND THAILAND

In the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries Malacca, the 'historic state' of Malaysia, was the center of the Malay world. In 1511 it fell to the Portuguese after which centuries of multinational colonization heavily influenced its architecture. Here you will tour the main colonial sites, including the ruined Portuguese fort "A Famosa," St Paul's Church and Dutch Square.

Penang was part of the Malay sultanate until 1786, when Captain Francis
