ANCIENT GREECE & DALMATIAN COAST

Athens to Venice

NON-FICTION

Colin McEvedy

New Penguin Atlas of Ancient History

ISBN: 9780140513486, Paperback

In a chronological series of maps and accompanying text it traces the movements of races in Europe, the Mediterranean area and the Near East from 50,000 BC to the fourth century AD.

John Julius Norwich

The Middle Sea: A History of the Mediterranean

ISBN: 9781844133086, Paperback

The Mediterranean has nurtured three of the most dazzling civilisations of antiquity, witnessed the birth or growth of three of our greatest religions, and links three of the world's six continents. It has inspired writers from Homer and Virgil to Norman Douglas and Patrick Leigh Fermor. Geographically, it is unlike any other sea in the world; in historical importance also, it stands alone.

Anthony Everitt

The Rise of Athens

ISBN: 9780812984989, Paperback

A magisterial account of how a tiny city-state in ancient Greece became history's most influential civilisation, from the bestselling author of acclaimed biographies of Cicero, Augustus and Hadrian.

Mary Beard

The Parthenon

ISBN: 9781846683497, Paperback

The ruined silhouette of the Parthenon on its hill above Athens is one of the world's most famous images. Its 'looted' Elgin Marbles are a global cause celebre. But what actually are they? In a revised and updated edition, Mary Beard, tells the history and explains the significance of the Parthenon, the temple of the virgin goddess Athena, the divine patroness of ancient Athens.

James Davidson

Courtesans and Fishcakes

ISBN: 9780006863434, Paperback

This fascinating book reveals that the ancient Athenians were supreme hedonists. Their society was driven by an insatiable lust for culinary delights – especially fish – fine wine and pleasures of the flesh.

Sofka Zinovieff

Eurydice Street

ISBN: 9781862077508, Paperback

Sofka Zinovieff had fallen in love with Greece as a student, but little suspected that years later, in the summer of 2001, she would return for good with an expatriate Greek husband and two young daughters. This book is a fresh, funny and inquiring account of her first year as an Athenian.

Michael Scott

Delphi

ISBN: 9780691169842, Paperback

This work engages with the complex archaeological development of the religious sanctuaries of Delphi and Olympia. It investigates the physical remains of both sanctuaries to show how different visitors interacted with the sacred spaces of Delphi and Olympia in an important variety of ways during the archaic and classical periods.

Robin Lane Fox

The Classical World

Michael Carroll

Greece: A Literary Guide for Travellers

ISBN: 9781784533809, Hardback

There is so much in the modern world which has its origins in Greece, most notably language and literature. This small, rugged, sea-girt country has the longest written history in Europe. Her myths and legends, so deeply embedded in Western consciousness, and her sublime landscapes, so infused with history, have been muse for writers, artists and travellers for millennia.

Jenny March

The Penguin Book of Classical Myths

ISBN: 9780141020778, Paperback

The myths of ancient Greece and Rome are the most dramatic and unforgettable tales of love, war, heroism and betrayal ever told. Whether it's Ikaros flying too close to the sun, Prometheus stealing fire from the gods, or the tragedy of Oedipus, their characters have inspired art, literature, plays and films, and constellations named after them fill the night sky. But how much do you really know about them?

Greek Lives

Lycurgus, Pericles, Solon, Nicias, Themistocles, Alcibiades, Cimon, Agesilaus, Alexander. "I treat the narrative of the Lives as a kind of mirror ... The experience is like nothing so much as spending time in their company and living with them: I receive and welcome each of them in turn as my guest." In the nine lives of this collection Plutarch introduces the reader to the major figures and periods of classical Greece.

Nigel Spivey

Greek Art

ISBN: 9780714833682, Paperback

Nigel Spivey sets the formation of the classical style in its proper historical context. He explores the question of how Greek art was inextricably bound up with the social, religious, philosophical and political factors of the period and explains the art not only in terms of those who commissioned and created it, but also with reference to the archaeology of the places which hosted it.

Barbara Graziosi

The Gods of Olympus

ISBN: 9781846683220, Paperback

Elegant and entertaining, this is the history of the most vibrant characters in classical civilisation. With their vast appetites, great beauty and warlike tendencies, it's hard to resist their pull on the imagination, even though, in antiquity, the gods of Olympus were just as often seen as cruel, over-sexed, mad or just plain silly. And yet they were survivors, whose story only began with classical civilisation.

Lawrence Durrell

Prospero's Cell

ISBN: 9780571201655, Paperback

A guide to the landscape and manners of the island of Corfu.

'One of Lawrence Durrell's best books – indeed, in its gem-like miniature quality, among the best books ever written.' Freya Stark

Elizabeth Roberts

Realm of the Black Mountain: A History of Montenegro

ISBN: 9781850658689, Paperback

Montenegro was admitted to the UN as its 192nd member in June 2006, thus recovering the independence it had lost nearly 90 years earlier at the Versailles Peace Conference. This book traces the history of the tiny Balkan state from its earliest roots in the medieval empire of Zeta. It also focuses on its troubled 20th century history.

Mark Mazower

The Balkans

ISBN: 9781842125441, Paperback

A dazzling short history of the Balkans from the Romans to the present, which provides a vital historical and cultural background to contemporary Balkan politics.

Barnaby Rogerson

Croatia: Through Writers' Eyes

ISBN: 9780907871897, Paperback

Croatia, with its unspoiled dramatic coast, is a place of bewitching beauty, one of the hidden jewels of the Mediterranean, and sometimes referred to as the "New Tuscany". Yet most travellers know little more than that it was once part of Yugoslavia. Its ruined Greek cities, Habsburg gardens, border fortresses, the palace of Diocletian, Roman amphitheatres, Byzantine basilicas and walled medieval towns only mock our lack of knowledge with their unexpected diversity.

Marcus Tanner

Croatia: A Nation Forged in War

ISBN: 9780300163940, Paperback

In this book a journalist who witnessed much of the war in Sarajevo traces the rise, fall, and rebirth of Croatia from its medieval origins to today's tentative peace. The book draws on eyewitness experiences of events and interviews.

Jan Morris

Trieste and the Meaning of Nowhere

ISBN: 9780571204687, Paperback

Evoking the whole of its modern history, from its explosive growth to wealth and fame under the Habsburgs, through the years of Fascist rule to the miserable years of the Cold War, when rivalries among the great powers prevented its creation as a free city under United Nations auspices, Trieste and the Meaning of Nowhere is neither a history nor a travel book; like the place, it is one of a kind.

Edited by John Julius Norwich

Venice: A Traveller's Reader

ISBN: 9781472140302, Paperback

John Julius Norwich has put together a dazzling anthology, drawing on the writings of Byron, Goethe, Wagner, Casanova, Jan Morris, Robert Browning and Horace Walpole, among many others. The pieces range from the sixteenth century, when the early lagoon-dwellers lived 'like sea-birds in huts, built on heaps of osiers' to the exquisite city of eighteenth-century revellers and nineteenth-century art lovers. This wonderful volume also contains maps, engravings and notes on history, art, architecture and everyday city life.

Judith Martin

No Vulgar Hotel

ISBN: 9780393330601, Paperback

This is the definitive book for managing an incurable passion for a decaying, waterlogged village. Whether you already have a raging case of Venetophilia or are among the 15 million people who yearly put themselves in danger of contracting it, here is where you get you fix of venetian wit, history, practicality and enchantment.

Javier Maria

Venice: An Interior

ISBN: 9780241248874, Paperback

An essential companion for every traveller to Venice, this is the hidden city revealed in a gorgeous non-fiction account by one of Europe's greatest living writers.

Michael Squire (Lecturing on Board)

Image and Text in Graeco-Roman Antiquity

ISBN: 9781107657540, Paperback, £25.99

By using the ancient world to rethink our own ideologies of the visual and the verbal, this interdisciplinary book brings together classics and art history, as well as a sustained reflection on their historiography: the result is a new and explosive cultural history of Western visual thinking.

Edited by Christopher Whitton

Pliny the Younger: Epistles book 11

ISBN: 9780521187275, Paperback

Pliny the Younger's nine-book Epistles is a masterpiece of Roman prose. Often mined as a historical and pedagogical sourcebook, this collection of 'private' letters is now finding recognition as a rich and rewarding work in its own right. The second book is a typically varied yet taut suite of miniatures, including among its twenty letters the trial of Marius Priscus and Pliny's famous portrait of his Laurentine villa.

Paul Sterry

Birds of the Mediterranean

ISBN: 9780713663495, Paperback

This photoguide covers all the species occurring in the areas bordering the Mediterranean. This area holds a rich variety of habitat types and supports a range of highly characteristic species.

FICTION

Rachel Cusk

Outline

A woman arrives in Athens in the height of summer to teach a writing course. Once there, she becomes the audience to a chain of narratives as the people she meets tell her one after another the stories of their lives. The storytellers talk of their loves and ambitions and pains, their anxieties, their perceptions and daily lives. In the stifling heat and noise of the city the sequence of voices begins to weave a complex human tapestry: the experience of loss, the nature of family life, the difficulty of intimacy and the mystery of creativity itself.

Homer (Robert Fagles Translation)

The Odyssey

ISBN: 9780140268867, Paperback

Homer's best-loved and most accessible poem, recounting the great wandering of Odysseus during his ten-year voyage back home to Ithaca, after the Trojan War.

Gerald Durrell

The Corfu Trilogy

Just before the Second World War the Durrell family decamped to the glorious, sun-soaked island of Corfu where the youngest of the four children, ten-year-old Gerald, discovered his passion for animals: toads and tortoises, bats and butterflies, scorpions and octopuses. Durrell's memories of those enchanted days gave rise to these three classic tales, loved by generations of adults and children alike.

Ivo Andric

The Bridge Over the Drina

In the small Bosnian town of Visegrad the stone bridge of the novel's title, built in the sixteenth century on the instruction of a grand vezir, bears witness to three centuries of conflict. This title chronicles the lives of Catholics, Moslems and Orthodox Christians who are unable to reconcile their disparate loyalties.

Tia Obrecht

The Tiger's Wife
